

The Honorable Thomas O. Rice

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

DAVID AND THERESA MARTIN, individually, and on behalf of their minor son,
D.M.,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

WAPATO SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 207,

Defendant.

NO. 1:22-CV-03117

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file confidential information under seal.

CAUSE NO. 1:22-CV-03117

FLOYD, PFLUEGER & RINGER P.S.
3101 WESTERN AVENUE, SUITE 400

1       2.       “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

2               “Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things 3 produced or otherwise exchanged:

4               (a)     All medical and mental health records of the Plaintiffs that would 5 otherwise be confidential under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 6 1996(HIPAA), including medical and mental health records generated through the course of this 7 litigation;

8               (b)     All educational records of D.M. that would otherwise be confidential
9 under the Family Education Records Privacy Act, Family Education Records Privacy Act 10 (FERPA);

11              (c)     All records from the Department of Children Youth and Families and/or 12 law enforcement related to any complaints regarding the Plaintiffs;

13              (d)     All records that include the social security numbers of the Plaintiffs;

14              (e)     All records that contain private financial information of the Plaintiffs, 15 including bank account information; and 16              (f)     Any records or communication maintained by the Defendant about the 17 Plaintiffs that contain information about other Wapato School District Students that would not 18 be subject to disclosure to third parties under either FERPA or the Washington Public Records 19 Act, Chapter 42.56 of the Revised Code of Washington; and 20              (g)     Any portions of personnel files (as that term is used in Revised Code of 21 Washington Sections 49.12.240 through 49.12.260) of current or former District staff that would 22 not be subject to disclosure to third parties under the Washington Public Records Act, Chapter 23 42.56 of the Revised Code of Washington.

1       3.       SCOPE

2           The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 3 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) 4 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony, 5 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

6           However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in 7 the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

8       4.       ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

9           4.1       Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed 10 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 11 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to 12 the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential 13 material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner 14 that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

15          4.2       Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise 16 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may 17 disclose any confidential material only to:

18               (a)       the receiving party's counsel of record in this action, as well as employees 19 of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

20               (b)       the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the 21 receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties 22 agree that a particular document or material produced is for Attorney's Eyes Only and is so 23 designated;

1 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for 2 this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit 3 A);

4 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

5 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication 6 of confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service 7 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately 8 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

9 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 10 reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” 11 (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of 12 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must 13 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted 14 under this agreement;

15 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 16 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

17 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 18 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party, 19 in accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the designating party will 20 remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion 21 to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the 22 designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific confidential information at issue, 23 and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to 24 sealing the information at issue. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be

1 followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to 2 file material under seal. A party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must 3 satisfy the requirements of Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion 4 to seal. Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in 5 accordance with the strong presumption of public access to the Court's files.

6 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

7 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party 8 or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take 9 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate 10 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, 11 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the 12 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not 13 swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

14 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 15 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 16 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary 17 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

18 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated 19 for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other 20 parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

21 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 22 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 23 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 24 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

1 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents 2 and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial 3 proceedings), the designating party must affix the word “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that 4 contains confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 5 protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 6 appropriate markings in the margins).

7 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties 8 and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other 9 pretrial proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other 10 testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after 11 receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the 12 transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect 13 confidential information at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

14 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place 15 on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word 16 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, 17 the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

18 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 19 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party’s 20 right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a 21 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated 22 in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

1       6.       CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

2           6.1       Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 3 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality 4 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 5 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 6 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 7 original designation is disclosed.

8           6.2       Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute 9 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding 10 confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or 11 in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer 12 conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The 13 certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to 14 confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

15           6.3       Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court 16 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under 17 Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 18 persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 19 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 20 other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to 21 maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

1 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
2 LITIGATION

3 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels 4 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that party 5 must:

6 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 7 subpoena or court order;

8 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 9 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 10 subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and 11 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued 12 by the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

13 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

14 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential 15 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving 16 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized 17 disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, 18 (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of 19 this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the “Acknowledgment and 20 Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

1 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED 2 MATERIAL

3 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 4 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 5 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This 6 provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery 7 order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree 8 to the entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

9 10. NON-TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

10 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving 11 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts 12 and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of 13 destruction.

14 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all 15 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence, 16 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert 17 work product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

18 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a 19 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.
